Supreme Court Jurisdiction

Oregon Laws 1977, Chapter 158, transferred to the Oregon Court of Appeals exclusive jurisdiction for all appeals except that expressly conferred on the Oregon Supreme Court by statute or the Oregon Constitution. This legislation removed from the Oregon Supreme Court's jurisdiction all civil appeals filed after January 1, 1978. The Oregon Supreme Court retained jurisdiction over all original proceedings, bar proceedings, Tax Court appeals, Judicial Fitness Commission proceedings and designated appeals (see ORS 469.400 and 662.120). In addition, the Supreme Court is the court of review for actions by the Oregon Court of Appeals. It is this latter duty which now forms the majority of the Supreme Court's workload.

The following tables show an analysis of cases filed in the Supreme Court from 1975 to 1984.

Cases Filed, Terminated and Terminated by Opinion Per Judge

The following table displays the number of cases, including allowed petitions for review, filed, terminated and opinions per judge for the ten-year period 1975-1984. The number of judges has been calculated to include pro tempore assistance received during each year. The number of cases filed, terminated and terminated by opinion per judge each year was then calculated using this statistic.

Petitions for Review

The following tables show the filing and disposition data for petitions for review filed in the Supreme Court. By statute and court rule, these petitions must be filed in the Supreme Court within 35 days following the Court of Appeals decision. After the petition is filed, the Court of Appeals is allowed ten days to reconsider its decision. At the conclusion of the ten-day period or upon earlier notification that the Court of Appeals does not intend to modify its decision, the case is assigned to a Supreme Court judge for preparation of a memorandum on the merits of the petition. The memorandum includes a recommendation to grant or deny the petition. Petitions are granted only if three members of the Supreme Court concur. If a petition is granted, it then proceeds through oral argument and the opinion writing process.
